

After the Accident. 2013. Assemblage. 12½ x 25 x 4½ in.

Following a car accident in New York which left her mother paralyzed from the waist down and confined to a wheelchair, my girlfriend left her job as a special education teacher in New Jersey and moved to Florida to care for her mother. This piece was informed by the isolation and loneliness of one whose life was changed suddenly and irrevocably by a terrible accident.
